

THE GLADE CHURCH

DEACON CANDIDATES | 2024-2025

Sean Brockman

Sean and Katie have two children, Luke (12) and Eli (9), and have been members of The Glade since 2016. Sean has grown up in Mount Juliet his entire life and is proud to call Gladeville home. After living the majority of Sean's adult life as a Catholic, he rededicated his life to Christ on Sept 17, 2016. Since then he has grown insurmountably in his relationship with the Lord. Sean serves at Gladeville Middle School with the men's mentoring program as well as FCA. Sean and Katie also co-lead a life group for Blended Families within the Church. His two sons, Luke and Eli, are both involved in Children's and Middle School's ministry. He also serves the community with the Lebanon Fire Department as an Assistant Fire Marshall.

Aaron Butler

Aaron and Briana were married in 2014 and have two children, Emilia (7) and Logan (3). Aaron has been a member of The Glade Church for 28 years, with his wife joining him 10 years ago. He currently serves on the safety team and is involved with small groups. Briana serves in the children's ministry and women's ministry. Aaron was saved and baptized in the church at age 11. As his relationship with the Lord has deepened, his priorities have changed. He now looks forward to opportunities for the Lord to use him. His life verse has been James 1:2 "Count it all joy when you meet trials of various kinds." Aaron knows that through each trial the Lord is faithful and will use it for His glory.

Marc Butler

Marc and Julie have been married 37 years and have three children, Aaron, Cody, and Grayson. They have five grandchildren, two of which currently attend The Glade Church. Marc and his family started attending The Glade Church in September of 1995 and became members shortly afterwards. Marc has previously served as Deacon, Sunday Morning Bible Teacher, been on numerous Construction Mission trips and Local Missions projects. He has served on the First Impressions Team and is currently serving on The Safety/Security team.

Matt Franklin

Matt and Kimberlee have been married for twelve years and have five children; Bylee, Lydia, Macie, Oliver, and Charlotte. Matt professed his faith and was baptized at age 11. Matt and Kimberlee joined The Glade in 2020. Matt teaches in the children's ministry on Sunday morning.

Phillip Hardy

Phillip and Amy have four children (Jessi, Jenni, Chelsea, and Ben) and three grandchildren (Millie, Mae, and Hunter). Phillip became a Christian and was baptized at age 9. Phillip has been a member of The Glade Church since 1995. Amy joined The Glade Church in 2001 and has taught children's Sunday School for 22 years as well as previously leading the dance ministry for 18 years. Phillip formerly served on staff as Lead Worshipper for 20 years and currently serves on the worship team. Phillip and Amy have both participated in multiple local and international mission trips and are deeply invested in their small group.

Brittan Jones

Brittan and Linda have been married for 17 years and have 4 children, Baylan, Eson, Kensen, and Laylyn. Brittan gave his life to Christ in 5th grade and became a member of The Glade Church in 2003. Brittan has taught 5th grade boys for 6 years and leads a father/son discipleship group.

Barry Sanford

Gloria and Barry have been married for 47 years and have 3 children and 9 grandchildren. Barry and his wife have been members at The Glade since the fall of 2014. Barry became a christian and was baptized at age of 13. Currently, Barry serves with the First Impressions Team and the Care Team. Barry and Gloria are both heavily involved in The Glade Groups offered during the week. Barry and Gloria love The Glade and are proud to call it their church home.

Josh Savley

Josh and Hillary have three children, Addie, Noah, and Jenna. They have been members of The Glade Church for 16 years. Josh and Hillary have led a Sunday morning adult Bible study group, served in children's ministry, worship ministry, and several committees.

Bradley Shelander

Bradley and Audrey have two children, son Ethan (age 11) and daughter McKenzie (age 9). Bradley became a Christian at the age of 7. In young adulthood, youth ministry was a big part of Bradley's life, which included serving as a camp staffer at the Lifeway youth camp M-Fuge. Bradley and Audrey have been married since 2008 and have been members of The Glade Church since 2012. Bradley has served on Sunday mornings as an Adult Leader, Children's Leader, and currently as a Middle School Leader. He is also a co-leader of a Men's group that he has been a part of since 2019. Recently, he served as a member of the church's Personnel Committee. Two cherished highlights for him during his time at The Glade Church were participating in the baptisms of both his children.
